Agents Camp –

July 20 – 24, 2021

Scholarship Application Requirements

1. A recommendation from a teacher or mentor regarding evidence of merit or potential in academics and/or visual arts, and/or music/performing arts. Each reference should also comment on the student's character traits with an indication of any financial or other need that would influence the application process.
2. A paragraph from the student explaining why they would like to attend, ensuring they will commit to the code of ethics required at the camp and will be available during the dates of camp, both during the day and the overnight portions of camp
3. A parent release form filed with the application, also listing medical issues and allergies, with a statement that the student will obtain a negative Covid-19 test within three days of attendance at camp and, if available to the age range, will obtain the vaccine. The student will advise the camp committee if any family member tests positive with Covid-19 or is still recovering from Covid-19 within two weeks of the Camp start-date.
4. Awareness of the deadline; Applications must be received before May 25, 2021. Notifications will be made by June 30.
5. Please note: The camp is being scheduled on advisement from the public health department and reserves the right to cancel at their discretion in the case of a reversal of Covid-19 trends. All students and volunteers must be fully vaccinated by June 30th.

Change in the Air

Climate Change Agents Camp – July 20 – 24, 2021

The 2021 Climate Change Agents Summer Camp will prepare young people for the significant roles they will play in creating an equitable future for all and facing the complex climate change challenges ahead.

They will meet new opportunities in sustainable development and energies that ensure justice. The character strengths, collaboration skills and creativity applied at camp are designed to prepare a new generation with practical skills to abate, adapt and prevent the negative impacts of climate change. As they serve others and brainstorm new ideas, they will share the comfort, bonding and camaraderie of a camp experience in a lodge with peers from near and far.

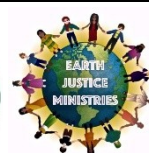

The good news is, their parents will pay nothing but will benefit from their children's experience. Since 2014, students have attended free of charge, thanks to community-based scholarship funds.

The Climate Change Agents Camp is open to students from age 12 and up. Each scholarship application must be accompanied by a letter of recommendation form from a teacher or school administrator. Students submit applications by mail or online by May 25. Scholarship decisions are based on character, merit (academic or visual/musical/performing arts) and financial need. Recipients will be notified by June 30.

The camp will extend from Tuesday morning, July 19 through 1:00 pm, Saturday, July 24th at Nevada City Retreats on Lake Vera Purdon Road (with pick-up at the farmers market that day). These four nights and five days promise:

- Service-learning field trips
- Purposeful creative projects
- New friends, fun and life-changing experiences

Please email applications to “Camp” at info@fullcirclelearning.org; alternately, applications will be received by mail at 17512 Brewer Road, Grass Valley CA 95949. Applications also available at www.ncclimateactionnow.org
